

INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

B U L L E T I N

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Oct. 28 Androgyny and Sex-Role Conflict in Virginia Woolf and Anais Nin
Centennial Building, Room 01
12:00 - 2:00 p.m.

CANADIAN STUDIES

Oct. 27 Audry Thomas: speaking on her work
Reception to meet the writer at 5:30 p.m.
in the Canadian Room, Hingston Hall
Speaking at Vanier Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

SOCIAL

RESPONSIBILITY

IN ### SCIENCE

MEDIEVAL STUDIES

RECREATION AND LEISURE STUDIES

THIRD WORLD STUDIES

Oct. 30 The Third World Introductory course is showing two films about traditional ways of life in the Tropics-THE HUNTERS, which depicts the life of the Bushment of the Kalahari Desert, and DEAD BIRDS, the brilliant portrayal of the unusual lifestyle of the Mendi horticulturalists of
New Guinea Highlands
Drummond Science Auditorium, 7:00 p.m.

Oct. 29 ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES

Dr. G. Edwards, Prof. of Mathematics
Vanier CEGEP; Editor of "Survival" Magazine;
Co-author of upcoming Science Council of Canada
background study on Teaching of Maths in Canada
Speaking on: NUCLEAR ISSUES

Vanier Auditorium, 7:00 p.m.

Oct. 28

NATIVE PEOPLES OF CANADA

Keith Crowe, Northern Quebec Inuit Assoc.
Speaking on: The North-Post-contact Period until 1940

in AD-314 at 7:00 p.m.

